"Masters, strong and wise,
Who teach because they love the teachers task,
And find their richest prize
In eyes that open and in minds that ask."

WITTENBERG

A COLLEGE of COLLEGES, a source of sound education, where personality, character, and scholarship are enriched in depth and molded inseparably into being--- the profound result of long years of devotion to an ideal, --- a distant dream come true....

J. A. NESS, Ph. D.

T. B. BIRCH, Ph. D.; LL. D.

DEDICATION

FOR their steadfast devotion and faithful service to our Alma Mater, for their inestimable share in the establishment and maintenance of her present high scholastic standing; for their wise and cheerful counsel; for the inspiration of their example in upholding the lofty traditions of Wittenberg, and for their unfailing friendship which was a source of the greatest pleasure and benefit to all who knew them, we, the class of 1938, sincerely dedicate this the faculty section of "The Wittenberger" for 1938.

PRESIDENT

REES EDGAR TULLOSS

A.B., B.D. Wittenberg College
Ph.D. Harvard University
D.D. Lenoire-Rhyne
LL.D. Muhlenberg College

AS the preface tells the purpose of a book, so Dr. Tulloss defines the purpose of Wittenberg College in our book of Philosophy. It is up to him to see that the book will be well written, or the purpose fulfilled. This he does with amazingly fine results. A scholar himself, our president takes pride in giving honor to those who deserve it and encouraging it always. Supplementing the many other characteristics he possesses, he is a good business man, which is made evident in the financial security Wittenberg enjoys. With pride and pleasure we say "Yes, that distinguished man is our President".

DEANS

DEAN C. G. SHATZER
A. B., A. M., Sc. D.

DEAN C. G. SHATZER, A.B., A.M., Sc.D., in his role as dean of college may be likened to the Table of Content, for under his skillful guidance we are directed to every part of the book or every department of the college. His congeniality immediately wins him friendship with everyone he meets. His students will tell you it is impossible to leave his classes without feeling the richer for having known the man as well as the teacher.

MISS IMMELL becomes an important part of a textbook of Philosophy because of her wise counsel and the interest she has in every phase of college. Our Dean is highly respected by the many women she personally contacts each year.

WITTENBERG students have for twelve years enjoyed work under Dean Pershing. For the last five years the men on campus have profited by his advise and appreciated his understanding. With ease he adds to our Philosophy book.

It is a Red Letter day in the Album for these . . .
Four years ago they started to fill the pages;
Their hearts aspired to one great goal that day;
To learn the truest aim and find a way.
They learned the truest aim and found a way,
They sail ahead new realms to gain.

Some wondered when they started their Album . . .
Whether they could persevere, and never tire.
"What is this precious goal that they desire?
Why waste your time?" we asked in a mocking way.
But they aspire to things more worth their while . . .
They turn the pages on to find life's truest aim . . .

VARSITY FOOTBALL

HANDICAPPED the greater part of the season by the loss of Boyd Abrams, diminutive half-back injured in their initial encounter, Wittenberg's gridders wound up the 1937 season with the poor record of seven defeats and two victories.

After six straight setbacks, the Tigers knocked off two in a row. The consecutive triumphs may be partly attributed to an outbrust of spirit on the part of the students, when they began staging fiery "pep rallies". Despite their third "pep meeting", the students could not instill the gridders with enough "umph" to capture the season's final.

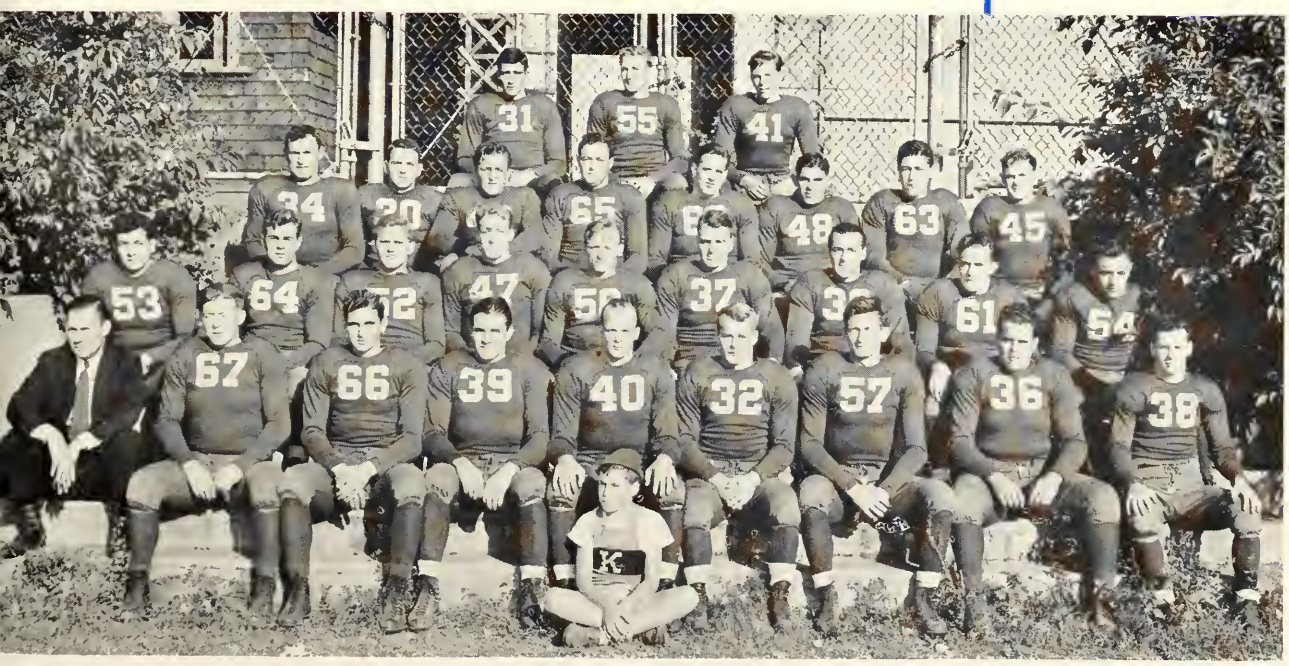
An innovation in Wittenberg's football memorials was brought in at the close of the 1937 season in the form of choosing the team's most valuable player and inscribing his name on a plaque. Paul Norman, guard, received the honor this year, in addition to holding a spot on the All-Ohio conference second team. Boyd Abrams and Gil Dickerhoof were given honorable mentions in the backfield.

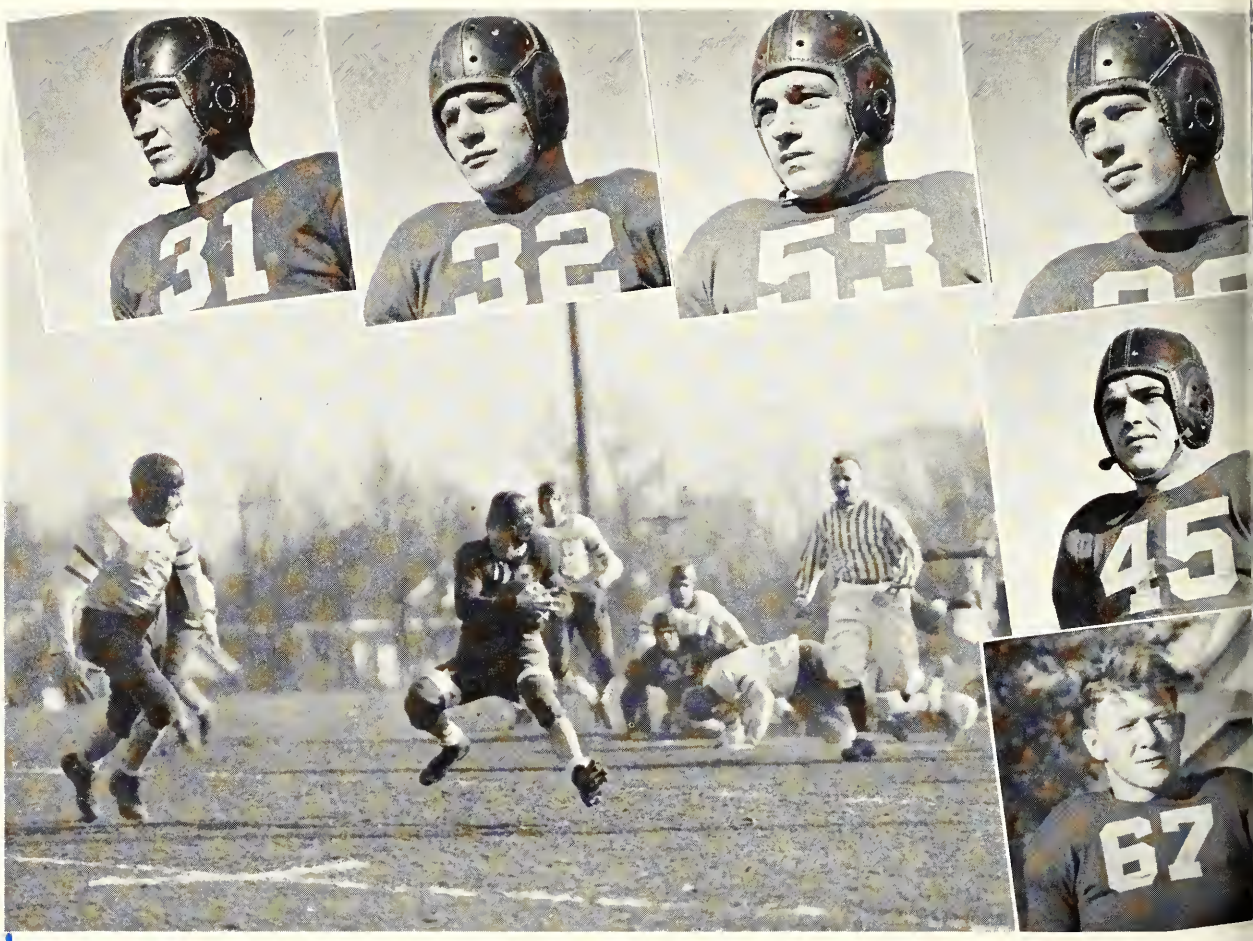
First Row: COACH STOBBS, PETRI, RANKIN, BLACKBURN, HALL, DICKERHOOF, POPICG, J. KOCH, ABRAMS

Second Row: PERETTI, MOFFAT, SCHEUTZOW, H. KOCK, LISAK, NORMAN, PETER, FREDERICK, JULIAN

Third Row: HUDAK, KURTZ, SEMOTOVICK, DORMAN, DWIRE, KISSELL, JENKINS, SYKES

Fourth Row: UPTEGRAPH, E. KOCK, JENSEN





DAYTON

OUTSUBSTITUTED by a powerful Dayton eleven, Wittenberg's footballers went down to defeat in their initial contest of the season here in a night game, Sept. 24, 28—7. Boyd Abrams made the only Wittenberg touchdown on a long run, but he emerged from the skirmish badly injured.

KALAMAZOO

COMING as a new opponent on Wittenberg's schedule and with an enviable record, Kalamazoo turned the team back with a 7—0 score. Outplaying their opponents throughout the contest the Lutheran's just didn't possess the punch to put the ball across the goal line, and lost the second game of the season on their home field, October 2.

DENISON

PLAYING their first game away from home, Wittenberg met Denison's Big Red in a night game, October 8. The Wittenberg team played heads-up football, but bowed to a stronger team 20—7. Kissell made a beautiful return of a punt to score the only touchdown for Wittenberg.

MARIETTA

MARIETTA'S strong aerial attack proved too much for the crippled Stobbsmen as they set Wittenberg back for the fourth straight time in a conference night game at Marietta, October 15, 12—6. Both elevens entered the fray with three consecutive losses behind them.

MUSKINGUM

FEATURED by Dick Peter's 99-yard run after intercepting a Muskie pass, Wittenberg's homecoming game with Muskingum, October 23, resulted in the Lutheran's fifth straight setback and the third of an Ohio conference eleven, 27—13. Muskingum applied a bewildering razzle-dazzle attack on the Stobbsmen.

OBERLIN

BADLY crippled and lacking spirit Wittenberg's gridders left for Oberlin and came back in worse spirits, for the Yeomen administered a 13—0 lacing to the Tigers, October 30. Marty Berthold starred for Oberlin.

BOWLING GREEN

INSPIRED by a heated student "pep rally", sponsored by themselves, Wittenberg's footballers went over to Bowling Green, November 6, and came back after bowling the Bee Gees over the green, 13—0, to tell of their initial victory of the season after six consecutive losses. Abrams returned to the line-up to score a touchdown, as did Dickerhoof.

KENYON

ANOTHER pep rally and what a victory followed. Wittenberg walloped Kenyon, 66—0, here in an Ohio conference contest, Novenber 13, to chalk up their second triumph in succession. Abrams, Hall, Lisak, Peter, and Dickerhoof all made one or more touchdowns.

HEIDELBERG

AN under-rated Heidelberg team brought the curtain down on the Lutheran's football season, at Tiffin, handing them a 6—0 defeat. Scoring in the first period the Student Prince's held to their slim lead through the remainder of the game.

FRESHMEN FOOTBALL

GETTING a taste of varsity football comes as a regular feature to the freshman footballers. Coached in the fundamentals of varsity play these yearlings content themselves, often too frequently, by workouts with the varsity team. Thus giving the varsity practice and getting toughened up for Ohio Conference, competition falls to the lot of the freshman. This year's squad, though not over large, possessed more worth while material than in former years. We are looking for these men to fill the score book with points in the future.

OHIO CONFERENCE CHAMPS

VARSITY TEAM

STARTING off the season rather slow in a pre-Christmas tour of the east, Wittenberg's 1937-38 cagers came back strong after their first Marietta game, Jan. 15, to win fifteen games in a row and capture the Ohio conference honors.

Breaking five all-time Wittenberg sports records, the Lutheran quintet was heralded throughout the state for their achievements during the season.

In addition to finishing the season with a record of 19 wins and six losses in their 25-game program, the Stobbsmen rolled up the following records:

1. Wittenberg's initial Ohio conference championship.
2. Three times an all-time high scoring total for a single game: Jan. 21, Wittenberg 72, Muskingum 30; Feb. 4, Wittenberg 73, Ohio Northern 39 (there); Feb. 22, Wittenberg 79, Ohio Northern 27 (here).
3. Wittenberg's longest streak of consecutive victories over Ohio conference foes: 19 (including eight victories in 1936-37 season).
4. All-time individual high scoring mark, set by Frank Shannon, Feb. 24, at Marietta with 24 points on 11 goals and two fouls.
5. New all-time combined high score of 106, established when the Lutherans whipped Ohio Northern, 79—27.

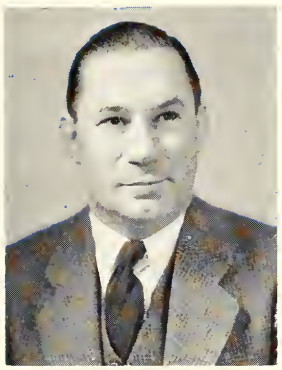
Still more records flowed into Wittenberg cage annals, though of lesser significance than the above five marks:

1. The longest winning streak in Ohio college basketball during the 1937-38 season: 15 games.
2. Wittenberg's all-time record for consecutive triumphs tied, as the 1930-31 team also registered 15 straight.

Coach T. W. Stobbs' record as head cage mentor reached 84 games won and 52 lost, with his average for seven seasons at .617. His chart now shows a co-championship, a second and a fourth in the Buckeye Association, and two-fourths and a championship in the Ohio conference.

Lew Werener was named for the first string center post on virtually every all-star All-Ohio team while the other four Lutheran regulars, Andy Moran, forward; Frank Shannon, forward; Tom Rankin, guard; and Ray Dykstra, guard rated at least honorable mention posts on nearly every team Lew drew a place on.

SEASON IN REVIEW



COACH T. W. STOBBS

He Showed Them How

IN their initial contest of the season against Duquesne at Pittsburgh Wittenberg lost, 39—36.

Continuing their eastern tour, the Lutherans won three straight over Dickinson, 38—30, Juniata, 54—34, and Lehigh, 46—44.

In the remaining four games of the Pre-christmas tour, the Stobbsmen managed to emerge with a victory in only one, a 48—35 triumph over Washington. St. Thomas, Rider, and St. Joseph, whipped the Lutherans, 33—29, 46—45, and 40—36 to finish the eastern itinerary.

Dayton's Flyers whipped Wittenberg in the opener of the regular schedule on the Lutheran hard court, 36—35, in a thriller.

Xavier threw another blemish on Whittenberg's endeavors, when it out-roughed the Lutherans on Cincinnati court, 37—27.

Ohio Wesleyan visited Wittenberg, but returned home in sorrow for the Lutherans had smothered them, 48—30.

Flashing form for the first time of the season, the Cardinal and Cream downed Marietta, 50—42, for their initial Ohio conference win at the field house.

Findlay, conference adversary, put up a good fight, yet they faltered in the last half to lose to the Stobbsmen, 43—36, on the Findlay court.

For the first time evincing the power of their aggregation, the Lutherans overwhelmed Muskingum, a conference foe, 72—30, at the field house.

In a home game between semesters, Earlham bowed to the Lutherans, 55—38, in a non-conference affray.

The Big Red from Denison went to perdition before the Lutherans in the initial conference contest of the second semester, on Wittenberg's court, 62—32.

Smothering Ohio Northern's Polar Bears, 73—39, the Lutherans rolled up their fifth conference win at Ada, Ohio.

Cincinnati gave the Lutherans the most opposition in two weeks, yet that team was bettered 30—27 by Wittenberg here.

Heidelberg was Wittenberg's sixth league and ninth all-games victim in a skirmish here, losing, 57—27.

Wittenberg conquered Bowling Green there, 43—40, in a league game.

Otterbein lost to the Lutherans, 36—30, in another Ohio conference encounter here.

Treking to Kent State, the Lutherans returned with a 49—40 bunting in a conference altercation.

Ohio Northern was Wittenberg's tenth league victim, losing a 79—27 decision here.

300 students accompanied the cagers to Dayton, where Wittenberg rolled up its fourteenth consecutive win in a non-league affair, 39—36.

In the season's final game, Wittenberg routed Marietta's Pioneers at Marietta, 53—35, to give the Lutherans the Ohio conference title.

First Row: CHESROWN, BUFFENBARGER, HESKETT, FOSTER, KOONS, CATON, CLICK

Second Row: Coach TROLINA, SCHEIDEMANTEL, SHELHAAS, MARTIN, CHATLAIN, WEARLEY, BROWN

ALMOST concurrent with the varsity's long winning streak, The Wittenberg freshman cagers rolled up eight consecutive wins in games serving as preliminaries to the intercollegiate encounters to wind up with a 1.000 batting average. Only before the Earlham and Ohio Northern contests did the frosh fail to exhibit their dexterity on the hard courts.

Norman Foster and Clifford Heskett at forwards were crack shots, while Don Wearley seems to be the answer to Coach Stobbs' prayer for a center to replace the graduating Werner. Both of the aforementioned speedy forwards are capable of holding down varsity posts, while Wearley needs a bit of seasoning. At the guard positions Scheidemantel and Shelhaas played excellent ball.

SWIMMING

FAILING to qualify an entry in the Ohio conference meet at Oberlin, March 4, Wittenberg's swimmers concluded their season with the ignominous record of five losses and one win.

Under the tulelage of Dr. Wilbur West, new swimming mentor, the mermen captured the initial meet of the season, edging the Fenn college swimmers. Gilbert Dickerhoof, a mainstay for three years and Ohio conference diving champion two years ago, became ineligible after the Fenn contest. In losing the remaining five meets, the team was further handicapped by the loss of McKenzie and Boll.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

AFTER last year's trial of an enlarged intramural program, the schedule was lightened as a general feeling indicated that too much of the student's time was thus consumed.

The program, still an important part of the physical education program, retained boxing which was introduced last year. The sports dropped from the calendar were indoor baseball and fall horseshoes.

• TAG FOOTBALL

Completing its schedule with a record of two wins, one tie and no defeats, Alpha Tau Omega topped the list in the "A" division. Delta Sigma Phi was second in the final standings.

Undefeated, but twice tied, Dorm League took top honors in "B" league competition. Beta Theta Pi, also undefeated, was forced into second place as a result of having tied three of its games.

Alpha Tau Omega won its first two games in the play-off series with the Dorm League to assume undisputed championship in tag football.

• VOLLEY BALL

Competition in "A" league volleyball resulted in a three-way tie among Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Gamma Delta. In the play-off matches Alpha Tau Omega defeated Phi Kappa Psi, only to be nosed out by Phi Gamma Delta in the finals.

Champion of the "B" league was Alpha Tau Omega, closely followed by Phi Gamma Delta and Beta Theta Pi, respectively.

• PING PONG

Gaining 57 points in the all-sports race with Alpha Tau Omega, Phi Gamma Delta captured the ping pong title. In a tie for second place were Delta Sigma Phi and Hamma.

• HANDBALL

Breaking a three-way tie, Dorm League captured the handball championship from Alpha Tau Omega and Phi Gamma Delta, who tied for second place.

• BASKETBALL

"A" league competition in basketball was hotly contested from start to finish, in keeping with the race in the "B" league which followed. Suffering only one defeat at the hands of Phi Gamma Delta, Theta Kappa Nu assumed championship in the senior division. Second in the final standing, with two defeats each, were Phi Gamma Delta and Phi Kappa Psi.

Three stand-out teams raced through the "B" league season and ended in a three-way tie, each having lost but one game. In the first of the play-off games, Alpha Tau Omega defeated Phi Gamma Delta. In what was one of the most spirited games of the season, Pi Kappa Alpha's tight zone defence proved too much for the A. T. O. team, giving the Pi Kaps the championship.

• SWIMMING

Victors by vitue of a one-foot lead in the final event, Delta Sigma Phi won its second consecutive swimming championship in the annual intramural meet. One point behind was Alpha Tau Omega in second place, with Phi Kappa Psi following in third place.

• FOUL SHOOTING

Presenting a team without a weak spot, Theta Kappa Nu took the laurels in the five-man event. Delta Sigma Phi and Phi Gamma Delta took second and third place respectively.

Heading the list of individual performers was Norman Foster of Theta Kappa Nu, who completed 63 of 70 attempts. James Keyser, Hamma, stood second with 56 out of 70 attemps.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

• PING PONG

CHI OMEGA captured first place in the Intramural Ping Pong, while close behind were the Alpha Xi's. Chi Omega lost the last match to Alpha Xi but already had enough points to win even with this loss. Alpha Delta Pi finished third.

• VOLLEY BALL

THE Intersorority Volleyball contest was won by Alpha Delta Pi. In second place, following closely, was Chi Omega. The Alpha Delt's defeated the Chi Omega's to capture this trophy. Third place was won by Alpha Xi Delta.

• POSTURE

ALPHA DELTA PI gained first place in the Posture contest, with 80 points. Alpha Xi Delta captured second with 75 points and Chi Omega third with 75. Mary Chambers of Alpha Xi Delta won individual honors in the contest.

• BASKETBALL

BETA PHI ALPHA, with an outstanding player in the person of Kay Schlegel, ran over all opposition to win the Basketball Championship. Their stiffest opposition came from Chi Omega and Gamma Phi Beta. Chi Omega finished second and Gamma Phi third.

• SWIMMING

BETTY FRENCH set a new pool record for the breast stroke and helped the Alpha Delt's win first place in this Intramural Sport. Chi Omega finished second and Alpha Xi Delta third.

• SUMMARY

WITH the Intramural season practically over it seems that Alpha Delta Pi will capture the all sports trophy award for this year. Chi Omega and Alpha Xi Delta will probably follow in second and third positions respectfully.

1938

FOR the first time in the history of the college the WITTENBERGER is being published on time . . . . . Besides that colossal fact, we have for you an unusually fine book . . . . . The theme throughout is the "Book of Books". Each separate part of the college life is a different book . . . . The students' activities are indexed in the back of the book making the class pages more artistic looking and easier to read . . . . . If you will notice closely you will see that we have tried to vary the style of each page . . . . . To make it easier on the eye and more interesting too, we have used more colors than ever before . . . . . Unique is the word for! . . . . . .

THE TORCH

WITH twenty-three years of most creditable quality, the TORCH, our weekly news collector is entering upon its twenty fourth year. This publication developed from the Wittenberger which was at that time edited once a month.

It has really made progress this year . . . . . Three things have been done for the first time in its history. First . . . A copy was printed for Freshman Week-end. Second . . . The staff actually allowed the women to take over and publish a women's edition all by themselves. Third . . . It rushed a special edition after the Dayton Game to meet the "Emigrants" returning home.

This paper rates high off campus too. Last year it placed second in a Contest for Weeklies from all over Ohio. It lost only to Toledo U's Campus Collegian. The contest comes in May this year so here's wishing the TORCH luck.

DID we hear some one say, "It has been awfully clean this year!" . . . . . well . . . maybe so . . . . . At least since it has been so clean they have added four extra pages . . . . . .

Eleven years it has taken them to come to that . . . . . Surely you have noticed that they have had more pictures in this year then ever before. We approve . . . . . don't you? . . . . . And did you know that they exchange with more than fifteen or twenty other colleges. We wonder if it is to get those clever new jokes they publish . . . . . Just fifteen cents a copy or one dollar a year and think of the enjoyment received . . . . . Do you suppose that the first editor (Mr. E. A. Bowers) would recognize it . . . . . .

Y. W. C. A.

NOT to be outdone by the Y. M. C. A. the Y. W. C. A. this year carried on one of the most active programs since its founding. Starting the year with a strong membership of upper-classmen as well as freshmen, the meetings were held every other Thursday night with prominent speakers, and discussion groups. Their work including arranging chapel programs, Lenten Vesper Services, helped edit the Freshman Handbook, held a convocation program, and carried out the Big and Little Sister Movement in the fall. This year they sent delegates to conferences throughout the state.

Y. M. C. A.

BEGINNING early with an inspiring freshman meeting, carrying through with a successful membership campaign which swelled the rolls to over 150, the Y. M. C. A. of 1937-38 launched a new era in the group's history. All-college sings, inspirational meetings, convocations featuring world figures as speakers, participation in community projects, attendance at youth conferences, joint sponsorship of pre-Lenten forums and Lenten vespers, and performance of social service in Springfield's institutional homes—these represent but a passing glimpse of the significant year's activity by the 50-year-old campus group. Two new cabinet posts, the promotion and correspondence chairmanships, were created, and a Y. M. C. A. council was established to assist the organization in its service to the college.

ONE of Wittenberg's most noteworthy events this year was the extensive tour taken by its renowned A' Cappella Choir through Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, New York, and Pennsylvania. Adding still more to the prominence of Wittenberg was the appearance of this choir on a nation-wide N. B. C. hook-up from Radio City, New York.

Membership in this organization totals eighty-one; however, for travelling purposes, forty-one select members were named for the eastern trip.

Springfield is quite familiar with the high caliber of this choir by dint of its numerous programs and concerts presented here.

Recognition for its success must be given to the inspiring leadership of its director, Professor John Thomas Williams.

CHOIR

ORCHESTRA

Fifteen members will return next year and with the incoming freshman the orchestra has visions of new success in the future.

PLAYS

At Top:
"MRS. MOONLIGHT"

Center:
"HEDDA GABLER"

Below:
"PASSING OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK"

"MRS. MOONLIGHT"

THE season opener for the Wittenberg Players was, "Mrs. Moonlight", a fantastic story of a woman who never grew old. Rachel Lang took top honors as Sarah who wished to never grow old, while Ed. Stroebel, Betty Michafelder, John Hallauer, and Ray Strack proved an excellent supporting cast. Sarah, the woman who never grew old, leaves home and her little daughter in order to insure their happiness. Tom, her husband, remarries, Sarah's sister. In the final act, Sarah returns years later to her dying husband and is recognized, thus ending this fantastic first production of the Wittenberg Players for 1937-1938.

"HEDDA GABLER"

BELIEVING that Ibsen is great in any setting, that it can be produced just as well in a modern setting as the traditional one because he has written about people with universal qualities, "Hedda Gabler" was presented in a modern setting. Capricious Hedda, void of every womanly affection and with an utter lack of capacity for any exultation moral or sensuak was played by Ruth Landwehr. John Hallauer, as Lorvborg, a rival for Hedda's hand was ably portrayed. Ed. Stroebel, gave an excellent performance as Dr. Tesman, the husband of Hedda. With the modern setting and the fine cast, Hedda Gabler was ably done.

"PASSING OF THE THIRD FLOOR BACK"

GRIPPING spiritual drama and emotional appeal were combined in Jerome K. Lerome's religious fantasy, this years third presentation by the Wittenberg Players. John Hallauer, Mary Chambers, and Verra Jeddy made up the leading characters. The action takes place in a rooming house in London. The first act depicts the selfish ways of all the roomers and the appearance of a stranger. The second, this stranger's Christ-like personality is changing their lives slowly. At the final curtain, a new personality has been imparted to each person and a Christian feeling pervades the atmosphere.

MEN'S DEBATE

VARSITY MEN'S DEBATE

THE close of the season found the men's squad tied for first place in the State Debate Tournament. In the "debate off" for first place, they lost to Heidelberg. They participated in more non-decision, pre-tournament debates than any squad in the past. The question used this year was: "Resolved, that the union closed shop should be adopted throughout American industry." Louis Valbracht was chosen by the squad as the most valuable debater. Tom Homrighausen and Davis Illingworth were the Captains of the affirmative and negative sides respectively.

FIRST YEAR MEN'S DEBATE

THE first year men participated in five non-decision debates and proved themselves equal to the women in the annual "co-ed" debate. The question was: "Resolved, that the National Labor Relations Board should be empowered to enforce arbitration of all industrial disputes." This year's squad is eagerly looking forward to Varsity debating next year. Captain of the negative team was Eugene Heckathorn, for the affirmative, Richard Hunt was chosen as captain.

VARSITY WOMEN'S DEBATE

HAVING debated the question: "Resolved that the entrance of women into economic and professional life should be discouraged, in nine non-decision pre-tournament debates, the Women's Varsity Debate Squad participated in six decision debates of the Ohio Women's Intercollegiate Debate Conference on March 5, at Capital University, taking third place.

Each of the twelve members of the squad has taken part in at least two debates. Captains were Ruth Landwehr and Gertrude Bane, for the affirmative and negative teams respectively. Ruth Landwehr was named the most valuable debater of the season.

FIRST YEAR WOMEN'S DEBATE

DEBATING the same question as the first year men the members of the women's squad proved themselves able debaters in a series of non-decision debates including Ohio Weslyan, Dension and Earlham. This year's squad is going to give the varsity debaters some stiff competition next year in the race for speaking honors. The captains for the two teams were Nancy Good and Alice Hepner.

ORATORY

MEMBERS
O'DONNELL, LANDWEHR, HECKATHORN, ILLINGWORTH

Representing Wittenberg in the Women's State Oratorical contest Mary Elise Heckathorn delivered her oration "The Toll of the Highways" a discussion of the automobile accidents of the United States. Norbert O'Donnell participated in the "Old Line" contest of the Ohio Intercollegiate Oratory Association with his oration "The Third Verdict", a plea for fairer treatment among the three groups capital, labor, and government.

DORMITORY

ADMITTEDLY the social center of the Wittenberg campus is the Women's Ferncliff Hall, adequate enough to house 140 coeds, ranging from freshmen, independents, and a few upper class sorority women. When the influx freshmen women became too large in '36, an auxiliary dormitory was opened at 625 Woodlawn Avenue and called the Woodlawn House. The women's dorm consists of three buildings: the old Wittenberg Academy, a brick building of 1884, and later additions of 1914. Organized for the first time in the fall of '36, a house committee calls meetings at irregular intervals when it seems "desirable or necessary". Approximately 15 women from the different halls of the dormitory compose the committee which studies the discipline problems and later presents them to the entire dormitory group. Social activities of the Hall are Sunday teas, exchange dinners and parties, and birthday celebrations each month for the girls whose birthdays come at that time.

BEAUTY CONTEST JUDGES

We are Trying Something Different

THE staff, feeling that the student body would regard this beauty contest as unfair no matter who judged it or who won it, is throwing aside usual customs in an attempt to eliminate all doubt.

A board composed of Russell Patterson, George Burns, Gracie Allen, Betty Grable, and LeRoy Prinz acted as judges for the contest.

At our suggestion, they cooperated to the extent that they sent a picture, showing them together judging our contest, accompanied by the letter containing their decisions.

Both the letter and the picture are available for anyone to see at any time.

To the Class of 1938

You're leaving us. And we're a little sad because it is so.

For each of you we have a deep wish . . . . that the road you have chosen leads you straight to your goal.

The world is yours today! May you find it good . . . . may you have the courage and the wisdom to leave it better still.
